

Boot Puller

Shed Project

Classic shed product, a simple design and construction for a useful way of pulling your boots off without getting your hands dirty

The dimensions are very flexible. A hole cutter for the bottom of the Vee works well, often the waste from the Vee can be reworked for the upstand part.

Members interested in working on this project: